June 28, 1905.

Mr. J. Willard Botti,
Agricultural College, Michigan.

Dear Sir:-

President Kerr has asked me to write you in regard to the position in the poultry department of this institution, for which you made application in your communication of May 13th. If you are still an applicant for the position, please send to President Kerr at the earliest possible date a detailed statement of the subjects you have completed at college, together with such recommendations as you may have. Send also a recent photograph, and state about what salary you would expect for the first year.

Yours truly,

Secretary to the President.
